

World-renowned musicians from The Chamber Philharmonia Cologne will perform at a Weston church next month.

The ensemble, which aims to inspire people of all ages to enjoy classical music, is playing at All Saints Church, in All Saints Road, on August 28 at 7.30pm.

After several successful European and overseas tours, the orchestra is heading back to the UK with a powerful new programme.

The Chamber Philharmonia Cologne was founded in Cologne which is famous throughout the world for its music teaching.

Generations of musicians have been trained in the German city and the ensemble is full of outstanding instrumentalists keen to spread their passion for classical music around the world.

The programme includes popular and unknown works from a wide variety of musical epochs.

Tickets, priced £12-16, are available from the Visitor Information Centre at the Tropicana, in Marine Parade, or on 01934 888877.