And let light perpetual shine upon them.

Calendar and Events

Today we are celebrating our Harvest Festival, all donations received will be taken to the Weston food bank ran by the Trussell Trust. Thank you for donating.

During Covid we had to reduce the involvement of the congregation in the Liturgy. Now we would like to reintroduce members of the congregation offering the intercessions at our Sunday Mass. If you feel you can offer this particular ministry please talk with Fr Brendan

We have many social groups using our halls and maybe there is something to interest you, check the list in the Autumn News Booklet. On Tuesday 3rd October a new Whist Drive starts at St Saviours Hall at 10 am-12 Noon.

Coffee Church is in full swing again and we welcome all. Maybe you know someone who might enjoy this short informal service with hymns and refreshments as well.

Our next concert is on Saturday 14th October at 7.30pm, when Trinity Singers and Costanzi Consort join forces to present 'An English Serenade', with works by Vaughan Williams, Byrd and Purcell. Tickets £15 on the door, but please ask Jude if you'd like to buy a ticket online.

Please do stay for refreshments after Mass today

26th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Harvest Festival

1st October 2023

Our Worship Today

We can always change. There is no value in merely talking about how we are going to do good. What matters is that we do

Our Hymns Today

Procession 262 We plough the fields, and scatter
Offertory 259 Come, ye thankful people come Communion 260 Fair waved the golden corn
Recession 265 Lord of beauty, thine the splendor

The Word of the Lord

Reading 1

Ezekiel 18:25-28

It is right that we receive the just rewards of our actions, good or evil.

Reading 2

Philippians 2:1-11

In our minds we must be like Christ Jesus, who emptied himself that he might be raised by God in Glory.

Gospel

21:28-32

We receive the reward of true righteousness.

ENTRANCE ANTIPHON

*All that you have done to us, O Lord, you have done with true judgement,
for we have sinned against you
and not obeyed your commandments.
But give glory to your name and deal with us according to the bounty of your mercy.*

COLLECT

O God, who manifest your almighty power above all by pardoning and showing mercy, bestow, we pray, your grace abundantly upon us and make those hastening to attain your promises heirs to the treasures of heaven. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever.

Amen.

FIRST READING Ezekiel 18:25-28

A reading from the prophet Ezekiel.

The word of the Lord was addressed to me as follows: "You object, 'What the Lord does is unjust.' Listen, you House of Israel: is what I do unjust? Is it not what you do that is unjust? When the upright man renounces his integrity to commit sin and dies because of this, he dies because of the evil that he himself has committed. When the sinner renounces sin to become law-abiding and honest, he deserves to live. He has chosen to renounce all his previous sins; he shall certainly live; he shall not die."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PSALM Psalm 24

RESPONSE: Remember your mercy, Lord.

1. Lord, make me know your ways.
Lord, teach me your paths.
Make me walk in your truth, and teach me:
for you are God my saviour. R.
2. Remember your mercy, Lord,
and the love you have shown from of old.
Do not remember the sins of my youth.
In your love remember me,
because of your goodness, O Lord. R.
3. The Lord is good and upright.
He shows the path to those who stray,
he guides the humble in the right path;
he teaches his way to the poor. R.

SECOND READING Philippians 2:1-11

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians.

(for shorter form read between > <)

>If our life in Christ means anything to you, if love can persuade at all, or the Spirit that we have in common, or any tenderness and sympathy, then be united in your convictions and united in your love, with a common purpose and a common mind. That is the one thing which would make me completely happy. There must be no competition among you, no conceit; but everybody is to be self-effacing. Always consider the other person to be better than yourself, so that nobody thinks of his own interests first but everybody thinks of other people's interests instead. In your minds you must be the same as Christ Jesus:<

His state was divine, yet he did not cling
to his equality with God
but emptied himself
to assume the condition of a slave,
and became as men are;

and being as all men are,
he was humbler yet,
even to accepting death,
death on a cross.
But God raised him high
and gave him the name which is above all other names
so that all beings
in the heavens, on earth and in the underworld, should bend the knee at the name of Jesus and that every tongue should acclaim
Jesus Christ as Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION

*Alleluia, alleluia!
If anyone loves me he will keep my word,
and my Father will love him,
and we shall come to him.
Alleluia!*

Or

*Alleluia, alleluia!
The sheep that belong to me listen to my voice,
says the Lord,
I know them and they follow me.
Alleluia!*

GOSPEL Matthew 21:28-32

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Matthew.

Jesus said to the chief priests and the elders of the people, "What is your opinion? A man had two sons. He went and said to the first, 'My boy, you go and work in the vineyard today.' He answered, 'I will not go,' but afterwards thought better of it and went. The man then went and said the same thing to the second who answered, 'Certainly, sir,' but did not go. Which of the two did the father's will?" "The first," they said. Jesus said to them, "I tell you solemnly, tax collectors and prostitutes are making their way into the kingdom of God before you. For John came to you, a pattern of true righteousness, but you did not believe him, and yet the tax collectors and prostitutes did. Even after seeing that, you refused to think better of it and believe in him."

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

PRAYER OVER THE OFFERINGS

Grant us, O merciful God,
that this our offering may find acceptance with you and that through it the wellspring of all blessing may be laid open before us.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

COMMUNION ANTIPHON

*Remember your word to your servant, O Lord, by which you have given me hope.
This is my comfort when I am brought low.*

Or

*By this we came to know the love of God:
that Christ laid down his life for us;
so we ought to lay down our lives for one another.*

PRAYER AFTER COMMUNION

May this heavenly mystery, O Lord, restore us in mind and body,
that we may be coheirs in glory with Christ,
to whose suffering we are united whenever we proclaim his Death.
Who lives and reigns for ever and ever. Amen.
